TO END BIRD HOUSE SHORTAGE. Girl Scouts Will Present Homes

to the City.

The Giri Scouts will present a number of bird houses to the city this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Sheep's Meadow, Central Park. Mrs. Lillian Shelp will head this troop of scouts Commissioner Gallatin will receive the bird houses on behalf of the city.

The housing shortage among small birds in the park has been almost as great as the apartment house shortage in New York city among humans, and Commissioner Gallatin was delighted that relief was in sight. The Giri Scouts made the bird houses this summer at their camp at Twin Lakes, Central Valley.

Study the districts in which cotton is grown with a view of recommending the presument of Commending to stimulate to the street, charging felonious assault, but instead recommended that Detective Artifucts also will be investigated.

Japanese capital is becoming interested in the possibility of founding new industries in the park has been almost as great as the apartment house shortage in New York city among humans, and Commissioner Conneil at Rio Janeiro, prospects for the manufacture of silk made the bird houses this summer at their camp at Twin Lakes, Central Valley.

"As nearly as can be estimated at this ime the receipts of the general fund, which must be deducted from the final budget in determining the amount to be sised by tax, will be about $60,000.000.

This includer the city's pare of the State income tax which opproximately iffsets the loss of liquor taxes.

"The moneys required for the conduct of public business in the city and the ounties for the year 1921 are at least $25,000.000 in excess of the sums that can be raised by the municipal authorities under the present constitutional limitations upon the taxing power."

F. H. La Guardia, President of the Board of Aldermen, informed the Board of Lestimate that he would protest the action of the budget makers in cutting out appropriations requested by the armony board. These appropriations are mandatory, he said. The items disallowed provide for quarters for Troop F. Staten Island; continuing the Eighth Coast Defence Regiment in The Bronx and improving the Ninth Coast Defence Armory in Manhattan.

Bosron, Oct. 1.—The Federal Grand Jury which reported to-day failed to return indictments in 340 cases of alleged violations of the Volstead liquor act. This is believed to have been the largest number of "no bills" ever revorted by a Grand Jury at one time in this country. Fifty-eight persons were indicted, chiefly for possession of stills or transportation of large amounts of liquor. The foreman made no statement as to the Jury's reasons for the throwing out of so many cases. TO STUDY BRAZILIAN COTTON.
